

Dies Irae

Deranged, befouled, monster, defiled beast
Descension, distortion, clenching of teeth
The pain you inflict is the devil's kiss

This is the day of wrath

You'll cease to exist

Treading the wicked path toward the abyss

Rage builds up, beware

Hate is everywhere

Do you even care

Your tower's falling down

It's time to say your prayers

You are still breathing now

But you're gone

Dies irae

Dies illa

Solvat saeculum

Into ashes

Now it's time

Atrocious rain keeps falling down

No sign of peace

I feel the grip of lunacy

there is no bliss

Rage builds up, beware

Hate is everywhere

CORSON KING

Dies Irae

Do you even care
Your tower's falling down
It's time to say your prayers
You are still breathing now
But you're gone
Dies irae
Dies illa
Solvete saeculum
Into ashes
Now it's time
Real is the truth inside my mind
It's like a blaze of fire
Fear is the key that you define you're such a vicious liar
Your tower's falling down
It's time to say your prayers
You are still breathing now
But you're gone
Dies irae
Dies illa
Solvete saeculum
Into ashes
Now it's time

CORSON KING
