

Tethered to Insanity

Now don't you mock, (curse) laugh, (stalk) scoff
You'd better get away from me
How can you kill, hurt, smite
All you bring is misery
You don't know me
You should flee
Final warning
Out of here,
Got it, go... go... go
You want to see
Blood in sinless times
The innocent confined
You're gonna pay for all your crimes
The fierce hand crushes down
Our hope is taken away
Our souls are foul again
I've won, you say
You're tearing us apart
But burning's not our fate
The pride that you enshroud
Will take you to your grave
Your pungent growl, (harm) flaws, (faults) scars
(You'd) better get down on your knees

Tethered to Insanity

To hell you're bound
Unsound
Tethered to insanity
You claim to be
The keeper in the shrine
But evil holds you tight
You're gonna feel its savage bite
Let go of
My soul
Defer
Control
Behold, it's
Torture and woe
Thrashing in a pool of fire
You burn
You cry
You don't know why
Just say good-bye
You try in vain
